

Topic	The Age of Invention						The Age of Invention
week	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Understanding English communication and languages	Biographies Charles Darwin And Charles Dickens		Descriptive writing			TASC week	Narrative poetry	Non-chronological reports		Christmas Carol Stories with flashbacks
Historical, geographical and social understanding	Life of Queen Victoria Life as a Victorian child. Incredible Victorian inventions Age of industrialisation,					TASC Week	Local Study – King’s Cliffe in the Victorian age Family life in Victorian Britain.
Scientific understanding	Evolution : Charles Darwin					TASC Week	Healthy Bodies
Understanding the arts and design	Victorian art William Morris inspired			The Pre Raphaelites		TASC Week	Brunel’s bridges D/T			Decoupage
Understanding physical development, health and well being	Net and ball games Badminton / Football Cross country					TASC Week	Gymnastics/ Netball
Mathematical understanding	Counting partitioning and calculating	Securing number facts, calculating, identifying relationships		Calculating, measuring and understanding shape		TASC Week	Counting partitioning and calculating	Securing number facts and understanding shape		Handling data and measures
MFL	French					TASC Week	French
RE/music	RE/Words of Wisdom					TASC Week	Music ( Music Hall) For assembly
Trips/Visitors	Blist Hill Victorian Town/					TASC Week
Key books	Oliver Twist Charles Dickens Street child					TASC week	Non-fiction text books on the Victorians			Christmas Carol Charles Dickens
ICT Technological Understanding PHSE	e- safety Using a computer 3 weeks		Communication and feelings			TASC week	Communication and feelings	Coding

Curriculum Overview Spring 2018

The Vanishing Rainforests

Week	1	2	3	4	5	6	Half Term	7	8	9	10	11	12
Understanding English communication and languages	Poetry (figurative language) Novels and stories by significant children's authors - Descriptive writing (My Grandmother's Clock by Geraldine McCaughrean and The Tin Forest by Helen Ward & Wayne Anderson)			Guided reading Running Wild Michael Morpurgo Narrative - Lost in the Rainforest End of Term Assessments				A Monster Calls Narrative writing  Formal writing Based in Beedle and the Bard for Book Week	Persuasive writing Formal/impersonal writing Balanced report (The Great Kapok Tree by Lynne Cherry, The Shaman's Apprentice by Lynne Cherry and The Vanishing Rainforest by Richard Platt)
Historical, geographical and social understanding	Rainforests - geographical understanding, Rainforest around the world. Habitats and adaptations of animals.							Fairtrade and the social and economic impact of the destruction of the rainforests
Scientific and technological understanding	The Nature Library							Our Changing World			Enquiry Skill Light
Understanding the arts	Print Work- rainforest poison frog bean bags Music - Rainforest compositions							Music - Rainforest compositions
Understanding physical development, health and well being	Invasion games /Yoga							Dance - Rainforest/ yoga/
Key Books	Running Wild Michael Morpurgo, Journey to the River Sea Eva Ibbotson.							A Monster calls, The Great Kapok Tree,
Mathematical understanding	Number (written & mental calculations), problem solving, properties of triangles, perimeter and area							Symmetry, measurements, data, problem solving, chance and angles
PPA/AST	French, and R.E.

Summer curriculum overview 2017-2018

Superheroes Year 6

week	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
Understanding English communication and languages	Non- Chronological Reports.		Diary of a super hero		SATS WEEK	Using formal and informal language	Half Term	Descriptive Writing creating tone and atmosphere	Short Story writing
Historical, geographical and social understanding	The history of comics and superheroes					Creating heroes		Super heroes of the past	Real life Super Heroes biographies
Scientific and technological understanding	Body Pump		Digestion			Digestion		Electricity	Body Health
Understanding the arts	Creating superhero Vehicles and characters. Perspective							Performance of Year 6 End of Term Show Leavers Service
Understanding physical development, health and well being	Cricket, Dance and rounders					Dance		Cricket, rounders, athletics
Key Books	My brother is a super hero							My brother is a super hero
Mathematical understanding	Volume	SATS Revision						Maths mastery and problem solving
RE/ PHSE	Keeping Healthy/ Values and commitment					The story of Joseph		Moving on and transition
ICT	Using safe websites	Coding				Coding							